BOSTON DAILY GLOBE Friday, Aug. 27, 1909 GOODWIN FAMILY REUNION

Descendants of Daniel Goodwin who settled at Eliot, Me. in 1652, gather at South Berwick, Me. on Aug. 26, for the second annual reunion of the descendants of Daniel Goodwin, who emigrated from England in 1652 and settled in that part of Kittery, now Eliot, was held today at Quamphegan park. Only a few attended the first reunion, but today more than 200 descendants of the immigrant were present.

A feature was the basket lunch, which was enjoyed in the pine grove. During the dinner a fire started in the young pine growth near the park buildings, and had it not been for the prompt assistance rendered by men attending the reunion, who, in the absence of water to fight the flames with, beat and stamped them out, serious damage would undoubtedly have resulted to the park property.

The exercises were held in the casino, Thomas J. Goodwin of South Berwick presiding. Prayer was offered by Rev. Fred S. Boody of Somerville, Mass. The historical address was delivered by Hon. John E. Hobbs of North Berwick. He exhibited a copy of the deed of the land now comprising the greater part of the village of South Berwick, made to the English by the Indian Sagamore Rowles in 1650, and which contained the name of William Chadbourne, grandfather by marriage of Daniel Goodwin, as a witness to Sagamore's signature.

These officers were elected for the ensuing year: Thomas J. Goodwin of South Berwick, pres.; Richard S. Goodwin of Berwick, Alpheus Goodwin of Rockport, Mass. Warren Goodwin of North Waterboro, vice pres.; Wilbur D. Spencer of Berwick, cor. sec.; E. E. Plumer of Rollinsford, rec. sec.; True E. Goodwin of Eliot, Thomas J. Goodwin, Richard L. RAYMOND FOGLER LIBRARY

This library is located on the campus of the University of Maine at Orono. In their Special Collections they have a section on Goodwin families, consisting of family papers of Goodwins living in Palermo, China and Thorndike. Some of the related families are Batchelder, Bradstreet, Marden, Bryant, Carr, Pearson, Robinson, Rowe and Webster. There is a town list of residents of Palermo in 1830 and Church records of the town and land survey for 1802.

One of the family collections contained an interesting flyer from John S. Goodwin, compiler of Goodwins of Klittery, Maine, appealing to Goodwins to send in their family data for inclusion in his forthcoming book. He was also asking for contributions of $1.00 to $5.00 to assist in expense of printing. For a $5.00 contribution he stated he would bring the contributor's line down to date not stopping at the fifth generation.

MYSTERY OF GEORGE H. GOODWIN'S LINEAGE SOLVED

Information and queries about this individual have appeared in past issues of Goodwin News. In Vol. 1, Issue 3 there is a query, and a copy of his obituary, then in Vol. 3, Issue 1 a listing of inscriptions - including his - are copied from a monument in the cemetery on Governor' s Rd., West Milton, N.H.

At last the mystery was solved when reading genealogy compiled by the grandfather of one of our members, Mrs. Genevieve Johnson, which she very kindly had copied and sent to us. Her grandfather, mentioned in Vol.3, was Richard James Plumer GOODWIN, a surgeon with the Army of the Potomac during the Civil War. After his retirement he became interested in seeking out his genealogy. He was a member of the former Goodwin Family Association which started in 1908. Dr. Goodwin was born 7 June 1837, the son of Richard Hanson GOODWIN and his wife Mary Ann Plumer (nee ROBERTS), and md. on 29 Dec. 1859 to Josephine Louise Allen, b. 12 July 1835. He was a member of the G.A.R. and S.A.R.

While reading the copy of Dr. Goodwin's lineage I [Alice in 1981] noticed the name of Shepherd Kelley who died at West Milton, N.H. and this brought to mind the Shepherd K. GOODWIN on the monument in West Milton. Thanks goes to Paul GOODWIN for copying the inscriptions on this for the Goodwin News, because it helped in solving this mystery.

Shepherd Kelley GOODWIN was the uncle of Dr. Goodwin and the father of George H. GOODWIN. This is the ancestral line of Frank S. Goodwin, Pensacola, Fla.:

1. Daniel GOODWIN md Margaret SPENCER
2. William GOODWIN md Deliverance TAYLOR
3. William GOODWIN md Abigail STONE
4. Elijah GOODWIN md Abigail TARBOX
5. Daniel GOODWIN md Mary DCWNS
6. (This Daniel was a Rev. soldier and had 2 months service on the Penobscot Expedition)
7. Joseph GOODWIN b Lebanon, Me. 19 Sep 1782, d West Milton, N.H. 31 Mar 1868 md Anna HANSON 23 Dec 1807
8. Shepherd Kelley GOODWIN b 6 Oct 1822 at Middleton, N.H. md Sophronia J. YOUNG
9. George H. GOODWIN
10. Clarence Garfield GOODWIN (adopted) md Agnes Mary MULLIGAN
11. Frank Shepard GOODWIN md. Merna GLENN

This makes three of our members who are descended from the marriage of Joseph and Anna HANSON. The third member being Everett R. GOODWIN, Braintree, Mass. His ancestor was Joseph's son, Daniel Buzzel GOODWIN.

Notes: Waldron did not have 3 children born in 1808! If the 1st Jacob was still alive in 1810, then they would not name another Jacob in 1810. Perhaps there was no child (#8) and #10 Jacob b. 1810 d. 1812 age 2 yrs?

Note: Jacob<sup>5</sup> d. in 1840, his daughter Joanna d. 18 March 1839, his daughter Abigail d. 26 Mar. 1841, and son Jacob (?) d. 3 Sept 1841 (all from same cause?)
