Who were the parents and what is the ancestry of Sadie L. GOODWIN, b. 28 Nov. 1900, at Pubnico Head, Nova Scotia! She md. Ervin Winfred SMITH Sr., b. 1 Oct. 1689, at Leominster. Mass.

V-8

V-9

Has anyone done research on the GOODWIN surname in Manchester, England? I am trying to help a friend with the following individuals: Walter GOODWIN, b. 22 NOV. 1837, Manchester, Eng. (his mother's maiden name was Sarah BRADSHAW); his wife was Alice WHALLEY, b. 17 Jan. 1890, Manchester, Eng, (her mother's maiden name was SEDDON); they were living in Niles, OH when their son Walter was born 16 Aug. 1934. Can anyone help with additional info, on this family?

V-10

Can anyone give me the correct lineage from the original crown grant GOODWINS Palatiah and Jedidiah - granted about 1770-1785 - sons of Henry GOODWIN?

V-11

I am doing a LARKIN family History of Pubnico and E. Pubnico for my children. By definition that includes a few GOODWINS. Can anyone supply data on any GOODWINS that married LARKINS especially before 1900. This is a great help in separating LARKINS with the same first name into the right families.

V-12

Intermarriages of LARKINS with GOODWINS before 1850 especially in Nova Scotia back to 1760, or New England 1650-1800. Especially if kin to Walter LARKIN b. 1728 (where? crown grants 1771, 1784 Argyle TWP (Pubnico) Nova Scotia.) Also GOODWINS to SPINNEYS, also SPINNEY TO LARKIN. Children, parents, evidence.

V-13

Would like to correspond with anyone who has information on Stephen GOODWIN, brother of Daniel the Immigrant. Did he really immigrate to Charlestown, Mass. as stated in Stackpole's Old Kittery and her Families?

V-14

Want any information on A. Benjamin Franklin GOODWIN born ca. 1818 in S.C.; married Elizabeth (Betsy) COON b. 1824 in Miss. She was the daughter of Jacob COON and Nancy SMITH. They were married in 1838 in Pike County, Mississippi. I need to know who his father is, who his sister is, and any other information about the family.

V-15

Daniel Stone was the husband of Patience GOODWIN (Daughter of Daniel GOODWIN and Margaret SPENCER.) He was born 1643, married 19 Sept. 1670 at South Berwick and his will was probated (proven) 23 Apr. 1713 in Berwick. Does anyone have information on his ancestry, parents, brothers, or sisters, birthplace, etc. I will be more than glad to correspond with anyone researching this Daniel STONE.

V-16

Jotham ROSS is descended from Daniel GOODWIN as follows: 1. Daniel STONE m. Patience GOODWIN; 2. Sarah STONE m. Benjamin LIBBY; 3. Daniel LIBBY m. Abigail ----; 4. Mary LIBBY m. Hugh ROSS; 5. Jotham ROSS m. Dorcas STONE. Dorcas STONE is reputed to have been born 2 Feb. 1786 the daughter of Zachariah STONE and Susannah FOSTER, grand-daughter of Robert STONE and Eliza ELLIOT. The ancestry is supposedly from Kennebec County, Maine. Can anyone help me prove or disprove this ancestry?

Who is Elizabeth CLARK who md. Jonathan GOODWIN at Blackberry Hill Berwick, Me. in 1770?

QUERY ANSWERS

This is an answer to Query #1 in Vol. 2, Issue 3 and Query IV-8, Vol. 4, Issue 5.

The answer to these queries was given in reply to a query in the Autumn 1982 issue of The Genealogical Newsletter of the Royal Nova Scotia Historical Society, submitted by Nancy Pendelton Goodwin. The Public Archives of Nova Scotia answered the query. Rosetta's maiden name was SMITH. Documents from PANS show that Howard GOODWIN, 36, of Hammond St., Gloucester is the same as Howard GOODWIN, son of Israel GOODWIN of Pubnico, Yarmouth Co., NS and his wife Rosetta SMITH. Howard's wife was Bessie F. PENNINGTON of Lower Argyle NS.

The NEHG Register, Apr. 1982, p. 85 contained an article The New England Ancestry of H.R.H., The Princess of Wales by Gary Boyd ROBERTS, continued in the Oct. 1982 issue.

On p.335 some sources are listed, including a book titled Various Ancestral Lines of James GOODWIN and Lucy (MORGAN) GOODWIN of Hartford, Connecticut, by Frank Farnsworth STARR 2 vols. (Hartford 1915.) This may be a clue to the relationship of GOODWINS to Princess Diana. This was contributed by Carroll H. SMITH.

V-3

In Argyle, Yarmouth County N.S., Central Argyle Wharf Cemetery - 1982 visit, Tombstone William GOODWIN died 20 Sept. 1860 age 53 yrs widow Rebecca died 3 Oct. 1888, aged 82 y, 10m. Son William died 11 May 1891 age 47. Next plot - 2nd Tombstone - Jonathan GOODWIN - no dates, wife Ester (sp?), died 23 Aug. 1866 age 25 yr, 5 mo., Son Goreham R. died 27 July 1867 age 1 yr. 10 mo., born Sept. 1865. Jonathan may be another son of elder William? Next plot - Enogh GOODWIN - 3rd stone, died 20 Sept. 1860 aged 53 yr. - possible cousin or brother of William - 1802-1860?

Most Argyle N.S. GOODWINS are descendants of Jedidiah GOODWIN or Henry GOODWIN his father, both born Kittery Maine, both arriving about 1773. Rickers Book, History of Agyles, shows Jedidiah holding two crown grants #29 and #49. Henry held a small grant #48 next to #49. This is on the east shore of Argyle Sound above Abbotts Harbor. Henry married 28 Feb. 1747/48 possibly Eliza Weymouth daughter of Benoni WEYMOUTH, per a forgotten (Stackpole?) reference seen at NEHGSL, Boston. Children were Jedidiah m. 1st. ---- McKENNA, 10 children; m. 2nd Lydia FROST at Argyle, children per Cattlemark list #29 - Yarmouth Museum; Daniel b. 8 Oct. 1795; Naome, no date; Abigail d. 14 Feb. 1800; Jedidiah b. 12 Dec. 1800; Karad (sp?) b. 1 Dec. 1802; Azubah (dau.) 4 July 1809; Elizabeth b. 1807 and twins Joshua and Mary born 10 June 1811. No William on that list if complete at 9 children, not 10 per NEHGSL source. Another Cattlemark List #? Argyle, N.S., Jedidiah GOODWIN md. ---- on 9 May 1770, children John b. 9 May 1772; ---- b. 8 Oct. 1773 died very young likely; Daniel b. 21 July 1773 lost 28 May 1782; Hannah born 20 Oct. 1777; Lydia born 31 Dec. 1779, died 25 Jun. 1790; Elizabeth b. 27 June 1784; Marcy b. 10 July 1786.

Comments - William in Query V-3 could be son of Jediah's son John. Spelling question: Jediah could have been my copying error of Jedidiah since these names were strange in 1982 and I was in a rush. This may be 7 of the 10 children credited to Jedidiah's 1st marriage to MCKENNA. Both spellings used in 19th century. There may be more Cattlemark lists including one for Henry the father of Jedidiah and also Palatiah GOODWIN m. Sally MORTON lived 10 miles East of Argyle in E. Pubnico. The GOODWIN pubnico grants were dated 18 Nov. 1771 and 6 Nov. 1784. (Nathan GOODWIN and Palatiah in 1784). The final answer to V-3 may require the following visits: Yarmouth Registry of Deeds, Probate Court (Wills), Yarmouth Museum, Court House at Tusket nearer Argyle.

The census of 1827 will tell you how many William GOODWINS there were in 1827 in Nova Scotia by counties and townships, their number of children and sexes but no children names.

Rickers book 1840, a list of captains of shipping, includes William A. and William H. GOODWIN. In E. Pubnico Cemetery - Round Hill has a large tombstone in the SW corner near the road; William A. son of Jeremiah and Mercy J. GOODWIN. No inference is made that the two William A. GOODWINS are one and the same. The next tombstone plot is Hannah wife of Palatiah GOODWIN, died 1 May 1866, aged 65 yrs., 5 mo., my great great grandmother, daughter of Benjamin LARKIN (1767) and grand-daughter of Walter LARKIN (b. 1728) the first likely LARKIN in Nova Scotia. Her husband Palatiah b. 1799 likely son of Benjamin G. and Phebe ADAMS, was likely son of Palatiah or Peletiah (sp?) GOODWIN and Sarah SEELEY, the first GOODWIN in E. Pubnico as mentioned earlier. There is some evidence that query V-3 William GOODWIN likely born before 1816 may have a middle name or initial. After 1800 records show three names were becoming a necessity to keep the uncles and cousins and grand-children separated. It gets worse when cousins marry cousins.

OLD GAOL MUSEUM ACQUIRES ARMCHAIR

The Old Gaol Museum, York, recently acquired a banister-back armchair of unusual significance to the town's past. Originally owned by Jeremiah MOULTON (1688-1765), the Indian fighter, and with his initials carved upon the crest, the chair remained in the family until purchased by the museum with funds from the Eunice WIEFLER bequest.

MOULTON was the third of that name to achieve prominence in York. As a child of five, he witnessed the murder of his parents during the massacre of 1692, and was kidnapped by the Indians during the raid. His early training as a surveyor and Indian scout foreshadowed his later achievements. In 1723-24, he was one of the chief participants in the raid on Norridgewock, which destroyed that French and Indian stronghold. Later, during the siege of Louisburg, he served as colonel with Sir William Pepperell. Surveyor, sheriff, member of the General Court, recorded and trustee of the affairs of the church and town, builder of the town of Sanford, colonel of a regiment, judge of probate and progenitor of a family that served well its town and region, Moulton was the mainstay of York during the stormy period of the French and Indian Wars. Today his descendants in this area include families of SEWALLS, LYMANS, GOODWINS, EMERSONS, FREEMANS, BOWDENS, TALPEYS, PUTNAMS, and BRAGDONS.

- Richard<sup>5</sup> Goodwin was a soldier in the American Revolution and served as a private in Capt. Benjamin Emery's Co., Col. Bartholomew Heath of Haverhill, Mass., and Hampstead, N. H., the father of Mrs. Goodwin, was a soldier in both the Colonial and Revolutionary Wars. He was a member of Capt. John Eastman's Co., Col. Gideon Gould, the father of Nathan, lived on Beech Hill, near Hopkinton, and served in the Revolution under Cape Benjamin Emery, Col. Nahum Baldwin's Regt., to New York in 1776, and in the same troop with his brother-in-law, Richard Goodwin (Hammond, op. cit., vol. 1, p. 430; A. S. Theophilus Goodwin came to Newport, N.H., in 1784 from Dunbarton, N.H., and settled near his brother Richard. He served at Bunker Hill, was on an expedition to Rhode Island and at Ticonderoga. The earliest record we find he was serving as a "Fifer" in the company of Capt John Calef. Most of his Revolutionary services were under this command (Isaac W. Hammond, ed., Rolls of the Soldiers in the Revolutionary War (New Hampshire State Papers, vol. xiv), vol. 1 (1895), pp. 224, 380, 489, 501, 514, 538-9).

8. WILLIAM<sup>6</sup> GOODWIN (Isaac<sup>5</sup>, Joseph<sup>4</sup>, Samuel<sup>3</sup>, Richard<sup>2</sup>, Edward<sup>1</sup>) was born in Amesbury, Mass., 9 May 1764. He married there, 31 July 1785, MARY BADGER, also called Molly, daughter of Obadiah and Mary (Martin) Badger. It is stated in The Representative Citizens of Paulding County, Ohio, 1902, p. 154, that William "fought valiantly during the entire Revolutionary War." However, it has not been possible to distinguish his service record from those of others of the same name. William is mentioned in the will of his father, dated 28 Oct. 1815. The last record found for his wife is that of the birth of her youngest child Dorothy, born 19 Aug. 1802 (Vital Records of Amesbury, Mass., 1913, pp. 109, 270, 386; John French Johnson, Ledger, p. 357; family letters). At least three of the Goodwin sons, Abner, John and Joseph resided for a time in Warner, N.H., formerly township No. 1, granted by Massachusetts in 1735/6, and settled by men from Amesbury, once known as New Amesbury. Their uncles, Stephen and Benjamin Badger, were among these settlers. Obadiah Badger, father of Mary Badger, was an "Armorer" and served as a private in the Colonial and Revolutionary Wars. He was a member of Capt. Timothy Barnard's Co., which answered the alarm of 19 April 1775, and marched to Lexington and Concord. He was born in Newbury, Mass., 19 April 1727, died in Amesbury 29 Dec. 1821, and his widow died 24 June 1823 (Vital Records of Amesbury, Mass., 1913, p. 518; U.S. National Archives, Pension record No. S-32-687; Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors of the Revolutionary War, 1896, vol. I, p. 435).

Children:

- i. ABNER<sup>7</sup>, b. in Amesbury 4 Oct. 1786; living in Warner in 1814; m. there. 12 April 1807, BETSEY DAVIS (Vital Records of Amesbury, Mass., 1915, pp. 108, 360; New Hampshire Vital Records). Abner was employed in Warner by his uncle, Benjamin Badger. He later moved to Hocking County, Ohio, then settled near Elmira, N.Y.
- ii. BETSEY, b. 19 Feb. 1787; m. ---- SHIPLEY.
- iii. ELIJAH, b. 24 Feb. 1789.

WOODGATE - GOODWIN

One of our members, Mahlon G. ERICKSON, recently sent us a copy of p. 152 from Suffolk Manorial Families and called our attention to the fact that the wife of Stephen WOODGATE was Katherine daughter of William HOVELL, alias SMITH. Her first husband was John WHITER (so WHITER was not her maiden name as we had it listed on the chart we gave out at the first reunion which had the supposed English lineage of Daniel GOODWIN). Stephen WOODGATE was the son of Stephen WOODGATE and his wife, Cecily ----. Both these WOODGATES were of East Bergholt, Suffolk Co. England. The elder one was listed as being a clothier as well as his son.

William HOVELL alias SMITH of Haughley Co. Suffolk, gentleman, born abt. 1510 md Anne, d/o Richard TURNER, of Norton, Co. Suffolk were the parents of Katherine, wife of Stephen WOODGATE. John Goodwin md. Elizabeth WOODGATE d/o Katherine and Stephen. (See English Goodwin lineage Vol. 1, Issue 3, Goodwin News), The parents of William were William SMITH, otherwise called William HOVELL, of Magna, Co. Suffolk, and wife Joan. His will dated 26 Jan. 1540 and proved the following March.
